EXPECTS A GOOD YEAR

An Expert in Meat Packing Offers Predictions.

I. C. Dold, vice president of the Jacob Bold Packing company corporation and general manager of the Kansas City house, spent yesterday in the city, the guest of his brother, Mr. Fred W. Dold, record vice-president and general manuger of the Wichits house. Mr. Dold's minion, as he expressed it is fremi-of Scial." It was partly a business trip, but mainly a pleasure whit with his brother, and as he also piquantly put it, to see the sun once more

"Why," he declared to an Eagle reporter, "do you know I have not seen the sun in Kanson City for a month." He ts elegment in his praise of the seft Italian climate of southern Kamas and says the present weather during his brief stay in simply grand for the assess of the year and makes a stranger with he were

As to the packing horizons in general and the Dold effairs in particular, Mr. Dold is also very well pleased. He remarks with satisfaction on the large trade in all classes of southful products in the immediate past and is very can quilte as to the on-coming your. As to the future of the provident market be and that was permantly a problem at this time of the year, and it would very likely he farcely speculative. He cited anial, and that to that right now at this but no Mr. Dold said, the big prokers silwayo seize this rime to These the market and attend to remaint down for season is always a dull one for this ange, often maif matured and light, into all stared trie bressed from the packing Street Car Company Will Soon Regin
